

Hollywood Stuntmen's Hall Of Fame Building Fund!

The Hollywood Stuntmen's Hall of Fame request the honor of your support and participation on the relocation as a sponsor of the HOF building fund.

The situation of the Hollywood Stuntmen's Hall of Fame today...the need for the HOF building fund.

Thousands of exhibits of rare artifacts and memorabilia of Stars and Stunt People of Motion Pictures and Television, featuring personal items donated by such notables as John Wayne, Gene Kelly, James Stewart, Steve McQueen, Charlton Heston, Chuck Connors, Montie Montana, Lash LaRue, Johnny "Tarzan" Weissmuller and others, including stunt legends, Yakima Canutt, Cliff Lyons, David Sharpe, Dale Van Sickel, Tom Steele, Duke Green, Ronnie Rondell, Hal Needham, Chuck Roberson, Chuck Hayward, and many others, who have been so honored.

A collection that outranks any other establishment, which has taken its Founder more than fifty years to collect, catalog and restore. There are also costumes, weapons, stunt equipment, photos and paintings, posters and murals, sculptures, cowboy hats, boots and shoes, dioramas, saddles as well as more than 10,000 movies and serials on videos and DVD's pertaining to the stunt world.

The Hall of Fame was founded in 1973. It is a non-profit organization that is dedicated to preserving the history of the stunt profession and to honoring stunt people the world over.
